All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

An Interesting Trip

Last Thursday, San Antonio Day, L. S. Slevin, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Williams and Miss Anne Hadden, motored to San Antonio Mission, about twenty miles from King City. The mission was established in 1771, and about it cluster many romantic and interesting tales. The journey was undertaken for the purpose of gathering data and pictures.

An interesting feature of the day's celebration was the placing upon the altar in the ruins a statue of St. Anthony, said to be 200 years old.

Instead of contributing to a coast firemen's war fund, the Carmel firemen have assessed themselves 25 cents each, the total collected to be presented to the local Red Cross chapter. The assessment may be paid to the secretary at the Pine Cone office.

Friday, June 28, is 'National War Savings Day.' Everyone is urged to purchase a Thrift Stamp or a War Savings Certificate or both on that day.

The opening day of the summer flower sale "caught on" at once. The proceeds go toward the maintenance of All Saints chapel here.

The paintings of artist G. J. Seideneck, now on exhibition at the Pine Cone office, are attracting much attention and favorable comment.

Miss Doris MacEntyre, who is in the cast of 'Pygmalion and Galatea,' came down from Berkeley last Monday.

In place of a battery of motor lawn-mowers, a herd of 200 sheep are now keeping the grass short on the new golf course near Carmel. The animals were brought down from the Crocker-Hoffman ranch at Merced, under the supervision of George Carroll. "Not a black sheep in the bunch," says George.

HISTORIC LESSON IN FOOD CONSERVATION
 The Hotel Monthly recently carried the following:
 Four thousand years ago Food Commissioner Joseph, in the land of Egypt, commandeered one-fifth of the wheat crop of Egypt each year, for seven years, and stored it in the cities nearest the wheat fields. His drastic action at that time saved the world from starvation.
 "Two thousand five hundred years ago Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, instructed that certain men whom he wished to have attached to his court be fed on King's food and wine to give them a well-nourished look. One of these men, named Daniel, persuaded his caterer that himself and friends could be better nourished on pulse and water, and requested that he make a test covering a sufficient length of time; the others to be fed on King's food and wine. The test showed that those who lived on pulse (lentils) and water were better nourished than those fed on King's food (luxuries) and wine.
 "Two thousand years ago Bible history records the miracle of feeding five thousand with a few barley loaves and fishes. The people were commanded to sit in rows of fifty to the row, and the servers passed before each and gave to everyone his portion so that all were served. It was an instance where a little food went a long way, and the fragments that remained were gathered up so that no food was wasted."

Wheat saving for the next three months is a greater need than it has been for the last three months, yet at the same time it is easier. With the vast supply of vegetables and fruits which will shortly be available, no one should suffer because of the lack of wheat in the diet. The Food Administration again urges everyone to cut wheat entirely from his or her diet until the next harvest.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

THE SCARLET CROSS

By
Margaret Widdemer
Of the Vigilantes.

What is it that you do today, who lift the Scarlet Cross?
For all the withered world is down in ruin and in loss,

And all the world hears clashing sword, and hears no sound less plain—
What can you do who lift the Cross, but heal to fight again?

We guard the women left alone, heartbroken for their dead,
We save the children wandering where all save Fear has fled,

We raise again the broken towns swept down by shot and shell,
We heal again the broken souls hopeless from learning Hell—

Oh, they who saw but Grief and Hate see now our red sign plain—
We save the sad world's soul alive that War had nearly slain!

Bombardments Cannot Drive This Woman Back

She Thinks Coffee for Soldiers
More Important Than Safety.

The following extracts are taken from a letter written by a Red Cross Canteen worker, Helen McElhone, an American woman and college graduate now located in a district almost constantly under bombardment:

"Foyer des Allies,
"Bar-le-Duc.

"Things look very black to me. I am discouraged at the big outlook of affairs and also at my small doings, but it may be the blackness that comes before dawn. Let us hope so. Our men certainly need help now as much as the poilus. I am beginning to see those who have been at the front. In fact, I am beginning to see some of the results of this life. They are sick and homesick, and worse things have happened to them. Several have said: 'All we ask is to get to the front and do what we have to do. Anything is better than this life. . . . This morning we had more Americans than I have seen before at one time. One came up to me here as I was drawing coffee from a big marmite as fast as I could fill cups and, pointing to his pipe, said, 'Tobac, tobac.' I said, 'Do you want some tobacco?' He seemed stunned for a moment and then said: 'Do you know it nearly gave me a fit to hear you speak English. I haven't heard a woman speak English in five months.' He said he had been walking about in the cold since four o'clock last night. He couldn't find a hotel or a bright light because, of course, everything is closed and darkened on account of the bombardments. . . . The Americans are very fond of ham sandwiches. They eat much more than the French soldiers, and when they first came in and ordered six eggs apiece it caused consternation throughout the land. The funniest thing of all is to hear the Sammies grandly urging these wealthy English girls to 'keep the change—oh keep the change!' . . . We start the day at five and work continuously until nine, when three fresh cantinieres relieve us. At five we go on for the evening shift from five to eight, and it is the most exciting and exhausting of the shifts. There is a certain time when they come down on us like a flood, eight or ten deep around the counter and three or four hundred altogether in this little room, as eager and tired as schoolboys."

The foregoing letter indicates that our soldiers look to the Red Cross Canteen as an oasis in a desert. They would not have it if it were not for your Red Cross.

Trustees Hold Adjourned Session

Not much was accomplished at Tuesday night's adjourned meeting of the city board of trustees, other than to widen the breach between the newly elected members and the old members.

A motion by Trustee Arne to reduce the monthly salary of the Marshal from $90 to $75 and requiring the "cop" to walk instead of ride his beat, was defeated—three to two.

Trustee Kibbler's motion to decrease the salary of the City Attorney also failed to pass.

Owing to pressure of Forest Theatre business, Trustee Kibbler has been unable to present figures of cost of probable street improvements.

Among the leading citizens in attendance at the meeting were J. L. Williams, W. P. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dummage, and R. G. Leidig.

Notwithstanding the failure of property owners to cooperate with the Sanitary Board in its efforts to clean up the untidy vacant lots, the board still stands ready to assist in clean-up movement.

Carmel residents will be glad to see the old Carmel Hotel assume a place of usefulness in the community. Mr. Bowen is making changes that will make it a convenient gas, oil and storage station, in connection with the Carmel Garage. A waiting room will also be established for the convenience of the traveling public.

OFFICIAL FOOD NEWS

Issued by
U. S. Food Administration
for California

By Herbert Hoover

If you could stand in the middle of Europe today and survey the land to its borders, you would discover its whole population of 400,000,000 human beings short of food. Millions of people in Poland, Finland, Serbia, Armenia and Russia are dying of starvation and other millions are suffering from too little food. Our Allies and the neutrals are living on the barest margins that will support life and strength.

This, the most appalling and dreadful thing that has come to humanity since the dawn of civilization, is to me the outstanding creation of German militarism. The Germans themselves are not the worst sufferers. They are extorting at the cannon's mouth the harvests and cattle of the people they have overrun, leaving them in desolation. If the war were to cease tomorrow, the toll of actual dead from starvation and its attendant diseases within the German lines would double or treble the 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 of men who have been actually killed by Germany and her allies in arms. The 10,000,000 people in occupied Belgium and Northern France would have died of starvation had it not been for us and the Allies.

We must build our food resources to stand ready for any demands upon us by the Allies. It is of no purpose to us to send millions of our best to France if we fail to maintain the strength of their men, women and children on our lines of communication. This United States is the last reservoir of men, the last reservoir of ships, the last reservoir of munitions and the last reservoir of food upon which the Allied world must depend if Germany is to be defeated and if we are to see free men.

Stand behind the boys at the front—but not too far behind.

This is your first chance to defend the flag—go the limit.

Raise a freight-saving, year-around, cellar-and-pit garden.

Plant an acre for the shell-hounded farmers of "No Man's Land."

Send our boys the fuel, and they will supply the steam.

Uncle Sam is today the quartermaster of a hungry world. He is playing the game squarely and counts on every American to do the same.

The war calls for the team work of soldier son and soldier father—the hero of the trenches and the hero of the furrow.

"Russian Realities"

In his lecture on "Russian Realities," at Arts and Crafts Hall last Friday evening, Prof. Alexander Kaun cleared up many misconceptions concerning his unhappy country. In fine, the important fact impressed upon the minds of the audience was that neither the Romanoff government nor the Bolshevik regime express the ideals of the mass of the Russian people.

If there is any good reason why County Recorder F. A. Abbott should not succeed himself in that office, we have not heard of it. We cannot afford to experiment with untried officials.

Registration for the county and state election has been resumed here at the Pine Cone and J. W. Hand offices.

Friends of Justice Ernest Michaelis are pointing to his 27 years' experience on the bench as the best argument in favor of his re-election in the Fall.

Precautions for Avoiding Forest Fires

Matches
Be sure your match is out before throwing it on the ground. Break it in two.

Tobacco
Throw pipe ashes and cigarette and cigar stumps in the dust of the road, and stamp out the fire. Do not throw them into needles, leaves or brush.

Making Camp
Make a small camp fire. Build it in the open — not against a tree or log or near brush. Scrape away anything burnable near it.

Leaving Camp
Never leave a camp fire alone, even for a brief time, without pouring water upon it and then covering it with earth. See 1914 hunting license.

Bonfires
Do not make bonfires when it is windy, or when or where there is the least danger of getting beyond control. Avoid making a larger fire than necessary.

Fighting Fire
If you discover a fire, endeavor to put it out. If you cannot, get word of it to the nearest federal or state fire warden quickly.

Information
Keep in touch with the rangers. Ascertain the number of the district in which you are camping from United States forest rangers, county clerks or newspaper offices. Make a note of it on a card or memorandum book.
